

Name _____ Email _____

Phone _____ Alt email _____

WORSHIP MINISTRIES

a. At church: Easter 2 - Introduction to family formation and worship: We invite all families to join in at least one area of ministry

i. Ministries for Sundays:

- _____ 1. Office Assistance Team (OAT): meets Fridays to help Lisa with bulletins, visitor packs, pew supplies, and prep for worship
- _____ 2. Lay Readers: Sunday services (8:00 and 10:00) Must be 13 years of age or older – read 1st lesson, psalm, 2nd lesson, prayers for the people
- _____ 3. Ushers: Sunday 10:00 service – arrive by 9:40 to ensure bulletins and newcomer packs are available; Meet, greet, distribute bulletins, make sure visitors sign book and receive packets
- _____ 4. Audio/Visual Guild:
 - a. Sound guild - Sunday 10:00 service - Work in sound booth, keep track of PowerPoint slides, etc.
 - b. Sharing services online - Sunday 10:00 service – help with service livestreaming
- _____ 5. Altar Guild: During the week and on Sundays - Prep altar and church for all services and take care of altar after services, this may include special events and/or additional services, (i.e., funerals, weddings, etc.)
- _____ 6. Acolytes: Serving with priest at the altar, includes crucifer (first server), torches (lights candles) and , gospel book (second server), bells (1st or 2nd server); may be needed for special services at discretion of rector
- _____ 7. Choir (includes keyboard operators): Sunday 10:00 service and additional services/events when needed; lead congregation in worship through music. Three rehearsals are available: Monday evenings at 6:00 and 7:00, plus Sunday mornings at 9:00 A.M.
- _____ 8. Lay Eucharistic Ministers: Sunday mornings – At this time, we have intinction only; however, when deacons, clergy, or diocesan discernment candidates are not available, one will have to step in to help. Must be confirmed or received into Episcopal church and approved by bishop.

_____ b. Guest speakers for sharing testimonials – as called – share your Christ path stories!

Please let us know if there are specific Sundays you know you can or cannot attend.